

Film Screening and Guest Speaker Remembering: The Maurits Kiek Story

Produced and directed by Cheryl Halpern, Remembering: The Maurits Kiek Story presents the story of one man's courage to return to Nazi-occupied Europe and serve as a covert MI-9 agent. His unwavering determination to stand up, in the face of overwhelming odds, and fight the perpetrators of evil was acknowledged in Den Haag, The Hague, in 2015. He is a hero for us to remember as we, too, are challenged to respond to human injustice and cruelty.

Speaker Cheryl Halpern transitioned to filmmaking after a successful and prestigious record of public service in broadcasting, women's issues, education, and international affairs. She has served four American presidents, including a term as the Chairman of the Corporation for Public Broadcasting and as a Public Delegate of the United States to the 63rd Session of the General Assembly of the United Nations.

Saturday, December 7th at 6:30pm EST

Admission is free and open to the public.
