

Media and Interview Policy

Thank you for your interest. Please review the following Media and Interview Policy. We appreciate your desire to learn more about Eva's message and the CANDLES mission. We try our best to accommodate as many interviews as possible. However, due to the high volume of requests, we must be selective in which interviews we can provide.

Students: To preserve Eva's energy, we can only permit a limited number of student interviews for classes and projects. Please visit the CANDLES website to read about Eva and the museum. Many students find the information they need through these resources.

Please refer to the following guidelines and procedures when requesting an interview with Eva Kor or CANDLES. Be aware that you will be asked to uphold the CANDLES media and interview policies when conducting any interviews with Eva and/or members of the CANDLES organization.

- As a 501(3)(c), Eva and CANDLES cannot answer questions about politics/political affiliations.
- To maximize the use of available time and energy, we request that you provide your interview questions in advance.
- Please do not exceed the allotted interview time. We must be very conscious of Eva's health and energy.
- A CANDLES staff member will be present in all interviews with Eva Kor.
- Eva's schedule fills up quickly and far in advance, so we apologize that we won't always be able to provide interviews with short notice. In an effort to limit Eva's travel, you may be asked to hold the interview at the CANDLES Museum in Terre Haute, IN.
- Please fill out the CANDLES Interview Request Form and a member of the CANDLES staff will review your request.

For interviews with Eva Kor: We highly recommend you understand Eva's story before you interview her. This helps optimize your interview time by allowing Eva to focus on the specific topic(s) you would like to hear.
