

CANDLES 2021 Kansas City Trip

July 29 - August 1

Witness the history of the Holocaust without a passport.

Please join us on a unique and educational trip to Kansas City! We will come together as a group while touring the largest collection of Civil War artifacts at the Steamboat Arabia Museum in the City Market area where guests will have their own choice for lunch from a plethora of restaurants featuring cuisines from around the world. Next, we will tour The National World War I Memorial and Museum. Here we will learn about the history which led to the Treaty of Versailles and the connection that Walter Sommers deems crucial when studying the Holocaust. We will end the day together at a local restaurant. On Saturday we will walk a short distance to Kansas City's Union Station to tour the world-renowned exhibit, "Auschwitz. Not long ago. Not far away." Participants will have the afternoon to explore restaurants, museums, and shops. We will end our evening together reflecting on the importance of this history and again enjoying a wonderful meal together at Fiorella's Jack Stack Barbeque in the historical Freight House. We look forward to being your host for this experience.

About CANDLES, Walter Sommers, and Eva Kor

By providing trip participants with the opportunity to witness Auschwitz by being immersed in over 700 artifacts curated from world-renowned museums and collectors, we hope to foster powerful breakthroughs in awareness of our respective roles in creating a world based on hope, healing, respect, and responsibility. We want to help our trip participants become witnesses to history, so they can make the world a brighter place. We welcome participants from all walks of life to join us on this educational experience.

About CANDLES Holocaust Museum and Education Center:

CANDLES is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that was founded in 1995 by Holocaust survivor Eva Mozes Kor in honor of her twin sister, Miriam. Our mission is to contribute to the empowerment of the world through hope, healing, respect, and responsibility by shining a light on the story of the Holocaust, Eva Kor, the Mengele twins, and other survivors.

Founded originally as CANDLES, Inc., an organization dedicated to finding surviving Mengele twins around the world, CANDLES has grown into a world-wide movement dedicated to engaging all people in our mission, fostering conversations about important local and global topics, and preserving survivor testimony for future generations.

You can connect with CANDLES online at www.candlesholocaustmuseum.org or on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram @candlesmuseum.

About Eva Kor:

Eva Mozes Kor passed away at age 85 on July 4th, 2019. Recipient of the 2017 Sachem award, the highest honor in the state of Indiana, Eva was a survivor of the Holocaust, a forgiveness advocate, and a revered public speaker. With the driving message of “never give up” in mind, Eva emerged through a life filled with trauma as a brilliant example of the power of the human spirit to overcome. She was a community leader, a champion of human rights, and tireless educator of young people. Even in her eighties, Eva traveled across the United States and Europe to share her message, in addition to leading hundreds of people on a journey to Auschwitz each year. Eva was one of the few surviving twins who shared her personal account of the medical experiments supervised by Nazi doctor Josef Mengele at Auschwitz.

In addition to the importance of her account of the Holocaust from a historical perspective, Eva’s life lessons and message of survival and forgiveness have touched the lives of thousands of people. In 1995, Eva chose to forgive the Nazis. She decided that they would no longer have power over her life. She described forgiving the Nazis as an act of self-healing, self-liberation, and self-empowerment; forgiveness is not about the perpetrator, and it is not about forgetting. It is one step toward repairing the world by helping victims free themselves from perpetrators and remove anger and hatred.

Eva is one of thirteen survivors featured in Dimensions in Testimony™, a new interactive technology created by USC Shoah Foundation to preserve survivor testimonies and continue the dialogue between Holocaust survivors and learners far into the future. Her story is documented in the award-winning film Forgiving Dr. Mengele and the popular young adult book Surviving the Angel of Death: The True Story of a Mengele Twin in Auschwitz. Her story of forgiveness is also recounted in the book The Power of Forgiveness. In April 2018, Eva’s story premiered as the subject of a feature-length documentary, Eva A-7063.

In 1995, Eva opened CANDLES Holocaust Museum and Education Center in Terre Haute, IN. The only Holocaust museum in Indiana, CANDLES is also the only organization in the world dedicated to the memory of the twin victims and survivors of medical experimentation at Auschwitz. Thousands of people, including many school groups, have visited CANDLES since it opened. Eva’s account of her survival of the Holocaust offers many relevant lessons on the dangers of hate speech and prejudice, and the importance of being an informed citizen. Eva’s message of healing reaches across the globe and across social, economic, and cultural boundaries.

About Walter Sommers:

Walter Sommers is a CANDLES' docent, WWII veteran, and Holocaust survivor. He celebrated his 100th birthday last winter and Mayor Duke A. Bennett of The City of Terre Haute declared Dec. 29, 2020, to be Walter Sommers Day, in honor of the momentous milestone. Walter was born in Frankfort, Germany in 1920. By 1937, Walter's parents realized that with the growing antisemitism they needed to leave Germany and began searching for a relative who could sponsor their immigration to the United States. Although they were able to locate a distant cousin, he was not able to provide them with the financial support. Walter's family witnessed Kristallnacht firsthand. The family's specialty shops which sold chocolate, wine, and coffee, were destroyed and Walter's father was taken to Buchenwald concentration camp. Fortunately, Walter's father was released from Buchenwald after only one month and the family learned that the Nazi officials would allow them to leave Germany if they sold their family business and turned all of the profits over to the government. Walter's family agreed to these terms and left for the United States in January of 1939. Walter had other family members who were not able to emigrate, who perished in the Holocaust. Walter continues to share his story and his unique perspective on history with visitors at the museum, citing the Treaty of Versailles as the important catalyst for the Holocaust and WWII.

Tour Pacing Guide

Please read carefully before registering for the CANDLES Kansas City trip.

The CANDLES staff welcomes people of all abilities and will do everything within our power to accommodate any need. However, we do need notice in advance so we can arrange for these accommodations. We are always happy to provide more detail to help you determine your ability to participate in each part of the trip.

Leisurely		Moderate		On-the-Go

Walking/Terrain:

- This tour is considered a “moderate” pace, which means there will be some walking on every day of the trip but the distances will often not be very far. There are many areas that include steps but elevators are often available if needed. However, the museum tours will also require significant periods of standing and walking as well, but there are ample places to rest. Please consider this when choosing shoes.

Please feel free to contact us with questions you may have about tour pace, accessibility, or accommodations.

ADA Accommodations for Trip

Transportation:

For guests traveling with us who are in need of ADA accommodations and are unable to independently board a motor coach due to a dependency on a wheelchair or walker, please contact CANDLES staff in advance so that the proper accommodations can be arranged.

Hotels:

If you are in need of an ADA compliant room please contact the CANDLES staff in advance so that we can make these arrangements in advance.

Mobility/General Assistance:

While CANDLES staff will certainly help as time and situation allow, registrants who require an enhanced level of assistance with mobility and/or everyday tasks are required to travel with a companion/caregiver. Staff will not be available nor provided for this level of daily assistance.

Those who have knee/hip/back issues may benefit from bringing a device to assist with walking and stability.

Medical Form

Confidential Medical Form:

The information you provide to CANDLES Holocaust Museum and Education Center (CANDLES) in this form will be held in the strictest confidence and will be used only to the extent necessary to provide emergency medical care as needed while traveling.

Who should complete this form?

All travelers must complete Sections A, B, and C. If you have indicated that you have a pre-existing medical condition, you are also asked to complete Section D. The more information CANDLES has, the more we may be able to provide medical assistance in the event of an emergency.

Please note that CANDLES will assess the information contained in this form and reserves the right to ask for a physician assessment for any traveler. You should always consult with your physician before embarking on any travel.

Why do I need to complete this form?

CANDLES asks that you complete this confidential medical report so that all due care may be provided. Travel is intended for persons in reasonably good health and with full mobility. Travelers who are not fit for long trips for any reason, including mobility issues, disability, heart, or other health conditions are advised not to join the tour so as to avoid unreasonable risk to your health. Should any condition become apparent, CANDLES reserves the right to decline, accept, or retain any traveler at any time before or during the trip.

You must provide complete, accurate, and up-to-date information on this form in order to allow CANDLES to safely accommodate you during travel. CANDLES reserves the right to deny anyone who is unable to safely participate in travel. If you do not disclose a condition, infirmity, injury, or ailment herein and are subsequently deemed unfit to travel due in whole or in part to such condition, infirmity, injury, or ailment, CANDLES shall have the right to cancel your travel arrangements with no refund or compensation payable.

If there are any changes to your physical/medical condition or otherwise to your responses below after your submission of this form, you must notify CANDLES immediately of the change(s). CANDLES reserves the right to request an up-to-date certification from a licensed physician in the event of such a change. If the information contained in this form is found to be inaccurate as of your date of travel and you have not provided CANDLES with notice of such change(s), your travel may be canceled with no refund or compensation payable. Information provided in this form must be supplied at time of registration.

What happens if I don't complete this form?

In the event you have made a booking with CANDLES and subsequently are unable/refuse to complete this medical form for any reason, CANDLES reserves the right to consider your booking canceled as of that day.

It is very important for your own health and safety that you complete all questions fully and truthfully. In the event of a medical emergency, the information you have provided could be crucial.

You could be the person who says, "I wish I could go some day."
But instead, be the person who says, "I'm going!" and make it happen.
Where there is a will, there is a way.
"Never, ever give up."
