

Auschwitz Summer 2017

WALK IN THE STEPS OF A HOLOCAUST SURVIVOR

Join CANDLES Holocaust Museum and Education Center for a history making event as we expand our ability to offer the experience of traveling with a Holocaust survivor from one summer trip to two.

This year there will be two options for travel:

Excursion A: June 24-July 2, 2017

Excursion B: July 2-10, 2017

We will travel to Krakow and tour Auschwitz-Birkenau. We will be led by our founder, Eva Mozes Kor, who was liberated from Auschwitz as a child. Eva is pictured at left front in her liberation photo from 1945.

We will fly from Chicago to Krakow and stay at a 5-star property while in Krakow. While in Poland we will visit various historical sites, tour Auschwitz- Birkenau with Eva, tour the beautiful city of Krakow, and visit the historic salt mines.

Please fill out the official registration packet and return it with your nonrefundable deposit of $500.00. Final payment is due March 17, 2017. Total cost of either excursion is $3,750 for the COMPLETE trip package and $2,450 for the LAND ONLY trip package.

About Eva Kor

Eva Mozes Kor is a survivor of the Holocaust, a forgiveness advocate, and a revered public speaker. Powered by a never-give-up attitude, Eva has emerged through a life filled with trauma as a brilliant example of the power of the human spirit to overcome. She is a community leader, a champion of human rights, and a tireless educator of young people.

In 1944, Eva and her family were loaded into a cattle car packed with other Jewish prisoners and transported to the Auschwitz concentration camp. Eva and her twin sister Miriam were just 10 years old. At Auschwitz, the girls were ripped apart from their mother, father, and two older sisters, never to see any of them ever again. Eva and Miriam became part of a group of children used as human guinea pigs in genetic experiments, under the direction of the now-infamous Dr. Josef Mengele. Approximately 200 children were found alive by the Soviet Army at the liberation of the camp on January 27, 1945. The majority of the children were Mengele twins. Eva and Miriam Mozes were among them.

In 1995, Eva opened CANDLES Holocaust Museum and Education Center in Terre Haute, Indiana, with a mission to prevent prejudice and hatred through education about the Holocaust. Eva has delivered her message all over the world, including several times in Germany, Israel, and Poland, and she was a featured speaker at the 10th anniversary of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission in South Africa. Her story is documented in the award-winning film Forgiving Dr. Mengele and the popular young adult book Surviving the Angel of Death: The Story of a Mengele Twin in Auschwitz.

About CANDLES Holocaust Museum and Education Center

CANDLES is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization founded in 1995 by Auschwitz survivor Eva Mozes Kor. Our mission is to shine a light on the story of the Holocaust and Eva Kor to illuminate the world with hope, healing, respect, and responsibility. We have led group tours of Auschwitz in 2005, 2007, 2010, 2012, 2013, 2014, and January and June 2015, and 2016 with up to 100 people. Our surveys conducted during and after the trip indicate that 100% of all trip participants are “highly satisfied” or better with their experience.

About the Trip

By providing community members with an immersion experience in the historical setting of Auschwitz, we hope to foster powerful breakthroughs in awareness of our respective roles in creating a world based on hope, healing, respect, and responsibility. We want to help our community members become witnesses to history so they can make the world a brighter place. Everyone is welcome on this trip regardless of religion, occupation, ethnicity, or any other factor.

“This trip was more than I ever expected. I am ready to begin planning my Holocaust unit with such greater insight and a better understanding for the enormity of the subject matter.”

“Many thanks to Eva and the CANDLES staff for offering an amazing immersion into the tragic story of the Holocaust. Thanks, too, for inspiring and empowering us with a positive response —forgiveness - giving me hope in the face of continued expressions of prejudice and hatred in our world.”

“Sometimes there are experiences that you know, as they are happening, that they will change you. This is one of those experiences, and I thank all of you who were a part of my life-changing experience for sharing this moment in time with me.”

Ten Creative Ways to Fund Your Trip

1. Harness the power of the crowd. Put your trip on kickstarter.com or indiegogo.com. Send the link to everyone you know.
2. Give up a bad habit. One former trip participant gave up Mountain Dew. For each soda she would have bought during the day, she put that amount into a jar to save for the trip.
3. Ask a religious organization for support. Churches and synagogues are often willing to take up an offering for trip participants. You may give a presentation to them when you get back.
4. Get an additional job. If you plan ahead, it's entirely possible to raise the money working just a few extra hours per week. One former trip participant worked all the overtime she could. Every dollar she earned from overtime went into her trip savings account.
5. Pizza. Everyone loves pizza. If you are a student or teacher, order a bunch of pizzas to sell after school. Charge $2/slice. Do it once a month or once a week and you may be able to save up to $1,000.
6. Sell your extra stuff. Almost everyone has more stuff than they need. Hold a yard sale or sell your extra stuff on eBay. You'll feel better without all that clutter anyway.
7. Host a trivia night. Attract the history buffs, have some fun, and raise some funds. Charge $5-$10 per person. Get a local business to donate a grand prize and a local restaurant to donate some appetizers.
8. Create something. Make sketches, paintings, or other forms of art and then sell them to raise funds for your trip. When you explain what you are raising money for, people will be inclined to support you.
9. Hold a bake sale or car wash. Do it once a month or once a week.
10. Don't forget to ask your friends and family for support! Your friends and family can send donations directly to CANDLES with a note asking to have this donation applied to your Auschwitz account!

You can be the person who says, "I wish I could go some day."

OR you can be the person who says, "I'm going!"

And then makes it happen.

The opportunity to tour Auschwitz with a survivor will not be available forever.

Where there is a will, there is a way. Never, ever give up.
