Kitty and Peter Koretz were Jewish twin teenagers living in Prague, Czechoslovakia, in 1939. They were deported to Auschwitz, where Peter was killed in 1944. Kitty and her mother, Marta, survived.

Kitty's and Peter's names do not appear on the CANDLES list of Mengele twins, and we do not know whether they were the victims of Josef Mengele's medical experiments. If you have any information about the Koretz family, we encourage you to contact CANDLES.
